

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Tuesday 23rd January 2024

By Revd John Marshall

The miracle of Cana

Here's an epiphany to have and to hold,
A truth that you can taste upon the tongue,
No distant shrines and canopies of gold
Or ladders to be clambered rung by rung,
But here and now, amidst your daily living,
Where you can taste and touch and feel and see,
The spring of love, the fount of all forgiving
Flows when you need it, rich, abundant, free
Better than the waters of some outer weeping,
That leave you still with all your hidden sin,
Here is a vintage richer for the keeping
That works it's transformation from within
'What price?' You ask me, as we raise the glass,
'It cost our Saviour everything he has'.
Sounding the Seasons Malcolm Guite
Canterbury Press

The first of the signs in John, would it have happened without Jesus' mum?
What do you think of God's overwhelming generosity?