

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Thursday 2nd May 2024

By Revd John Marshall

You were in me, Christ.
You were always there,
and I was not seeking you.
When I had found you, so often I forget you. But you confirmed to love me. From the depths of my being,
a fire was rising to take hold of me I was burning for you to be everything in my life. I was calling you,
You the Christ, are the only way I have no other.

Roger Shutz, Fount book of Prayers Harper Collins

It is good to know Christ and make Him known.
