

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Friday 27th January 2023

By Revd John Ohen.

God's will.

Jesus entire life was to do God's work and his will. Jesus said that he has come down from heaven, not to do his own will but to do the will of him who sent him (John 6. 38). To most of us to do God's will remains a big challenge.

Jesus also reminds us that his true disciples are those who do God's will. Jesus actually said that who ever does God's will is his brother and sister, and mother (John 6.35).

It can be said that our vocation is really to do the will of God and help and encourage everyone to do the same. However, one of our greatest gifts is the gift of free will. We can choose to obey God or not.

However, if we obey God and do his will, our heart, mind and conscience will learn to detect what brings us peace, well-being and happiness. We should all note that there are two kinds of people: Those who say to God, "Your will be done" and those to whom God say's, "OK, have it your way."

Bible passage. Mark 3. 31 – 35.

Prayer. Lord teach me to do your will always, and in doing your will I will live as a child of God and live life to the full (John 10.10).
