

Thought for the Day - Monday 13th May 2024

By Revd John Marshall

Jesus promises the Spirit. Another sonnet by Malcolm Guite

God's glory waits to shine afresh in you
To recreate you with his kindling breath.
For all I promised you is coming true.
The breath of. Life has burst the gates of death.
No need to leave the place I've given you
The world I love and gave my life to save.
Stay in the city till it all comes true.
The Father's Spirit raised me from the grave
And I will send that Spirit down on you.
The poor fools who claim power in this world
Have toiled in vain for nothing but a lie.
Pilate and Caesar, Herod, all have failed.
But you'll be clothed with power from on high
To share a Kingdom that can never die.

Stations of the Resurrection Canterbury Press

The gift of the Holy Spirit is transforming and empowering. It is good to recognise God's Spirit in the Words of Scripture and in our lives.