

Thought for the day – Tuesday 27th September 2022

By Revd John Marshall

The bread of tomorrow

Amma Abba,
give us today
the bread of tomorrow

the bread of sincerity
and truth

the bread of forgiveness tough though it may be to swallow

the bread of human dignity that we receive
by putting it down

picking up the plate
of my own neediness

filled with fresh bread by my sister, my brother

let me be fed
by others

so that I may learn to receive

the gift of my being the grace of your mercy

Abba Amma
Feed me with the bread of heaven the leaven of your kingdom

I like this prayer, what do you think?
