

Thought for the day – Tuesday 7th May 2024

By Revd John Marshall

One of my earliest memories is singing Do you want a pilot in the front of my older brothers' Sunday School.

293 CSSM

Do you want a Pilot?
Signal then to Jesus;
Do you want a Pilot?
Bid Him come on board;
For he will safely guide
Across the ocean wide,
Until you reach at last
The Heavenly Harbour.

Other songs fit the theme

269 CSSM

Wide, wide as the ocean,
High as the heaven above,
Deep, deep as the deepest sea,
Is my Saviours love.
I, though so unworthy,
Still am a child of His care;
For His Word teaches me
That His love reaches earth
Everywhere !

The grace of the Lord, like a fathomless sea—
Sufficient for you, sufficient for me,
Is tender , and patient, and boundless and free —
Sufficient for every need!

We remember Jesus being welcomed on to the boats of the disciples.
( From the news we know the importance of the pilots)
Each week in church we have a reminder of God's grace.
