

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Wednesday 30th November 2022

By Revd Kit Gunasekera

"Everything will be okay in the end. If it's not okay, it's not the end"

I think it was John Lennon who said that.

The bible probably describes something similar when it says:

"And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." - Romans 8:28

I hope you have a good day today. And if it is good, then rejoice in it! And give thanks for it.

But, if the day turns bad or ugly, then let's hold on. It's not the end. Let us focus on where we are heading. Not as a way of denying the bad or the ugly, but to give us strength to go through it. Tomorrow will be better. Those of us who use sat nav, let us see that we may be stuck on the road marked red on our devices, but looking ahead, the road will soon turn amber (less traffic) and then further ahead to blue (clear road), until we reach our destination. Which is a place where, as mother Julian said: All shall be well, and all shall be well, and all manner of thing shall be well"
