

Thought for the day – Wednesday 17th March 2021

By Revd Kit Gunasekera

Today we mark St Patrick. He is of course known globally and specially celebrated in Ireland. The collect prayer draws attention to the fire of faith that he kindled, and that God will strengthen us in our pilgrimage to the light of heaven.

Remembering and celebrating saints, wherever and whenever they were, helps us in our faith. They have gone before us, and we can learn and be inspired by them. They have often faced challenges and difficulties in faith that we encounter. Yet, they also remind us, that this journey of faith, is life giving, and it is heading somewhere.

Every Christian is a saint.

Who inspires you in your faith?
