

Thought for the day – Tuesday 1st February 2022

By Revd John Marshall

Thinking about thoughts

For some reason I am finding it difficult to write a thought for today. Maybe I should try praying. Maybe I should wait for something to come by accident. An odd word can trigger the thinking process. Sometimes it can be doing a jigsaw or reading something.

The news can be a good source of inspiration – or thinking of a favourite story. Or a word from the Bible.

I am really rambling.

Another idea might be to open the Bible and see what happens. I opened it at 2 Chronicles chapter 3 and 4. Solomon is building the Temple. His father David wanted to build the Temple. The details of the Temple sound exquisite and when it was being dedicated there was music and worship.

“And it was the duty of the trumpeters and singers to make the melody heard in unison in praise and thanksgiving to the Lord and when the song was raised, with trumpets and cymbals and other musical instruments in praise to the Lord.

For he is good, for his steadfast love endures for ever.”

Let us give thanks for the musicians who help us in our worship.

It is good to sing praise to God.