

Thought for the day – Tuesday 25th January 2022

By Revd John Marshall

Amy Carmichael again

Amy rescued children from situations of abuse. The many children she looked after regarded her as their mother.

Praying for our children

Father hear us, we are praying

Hear the words our hearts are saying

We are praying for our children.

Keep them from the powers of evil.

From the secret, hidden peril,

Father hear us for our children.

From the whirlpool that would suck them

From the treacherous quick sand, pluck them

Father hear us for our children

From the worldlings hollow gladness,

From the sting of faithless sadness

Father, Father, keep our children

Through life's troubled waters steer them

Through life's bitter battle cheer them,

Father, Father, be Thou near them.

From Women of Prayer Lion

Let us pray for all those who care for our children and pray for the safety of our children.
