

Thought for the day – Wednesday 15th June 2022

By Revd John Marshall

Embodied discipleship

Anderson Jeremiah is an Anglican theologian from South India, he lives in Lancaster.

He wrote this prayer

Love incarnate,

Fountain of Mercy and Justice

In a world of inequity and pain.

May our actions be our prayer.

We cry out for Shalom, fullness of life to all.

Let the Spirit of Truth guide us.

Let the Spirit of Love free us.

Give us the compassion, courage and resolve to become the light, we seek that many may see life and their dignity restored.

Inspire us to embody a world without injustice and prejudice.

Form us into channels of your love and peace.

Let the river of justice and mercy flood our imperfect world,

Quenching the thirst of parched souls and lands.

Abide in us O Liberator that we become the Word

So that the word may have Life, in all its abundance.

Amen

Rage and Hope Christian Aid SPCK

How do we embody our discipleship of Christ?