

Thought for the day – Tuesday 1st August 2023

Sounding the Seasons The miracle at Cana Malcolm Guite

Here's an epiphany to have and hold,
A truth that you can taste upon the tongue,
No distant shrines and canopies of gold
Or ladders to be clambered rung by rung,
But here and now, amidst your daily living,
Where you can taste and touch and feel and see
The spring of love, the fount of all forgiving
Flows when you need it, rich, abundant, free.
Better than waters of some outer weeping,
That leaves you still with all your hidden sin.
Here is a vintage richer for the keeping
That works in transformation from within,
'What price?' you ask me, as we raise the glass
'It cost our Saviour everything he has.'

I think that Jesus enjoyed the wedding at Cana. His mother knew his potential.
