

Thought for the day – Friday 20th January 2023

By Revd John Marshall

A Requirement Felicity Young

And it is required

that I should be as a shard
but breaking is a costly thing.

Mary broke alabaster

for the outpouring of spikenard
and the fragrance that filled the house was her delight.

It is by breaking the old

that the Potter fashions the new.
He pours His Spirit for our wholeness and His delight.

And it is required

that I should be as a shard --- surely this will be my delight.

New Christian Poetry Collins Flame

The idea of God as the Potter can resonate. How do we feel about being broken and built up?