Sowing Seeds

While travelling in the Yorkshire Dales we saw a man sowing seeds by hand in a field. He had a bag of seed and was throwing it out by careful handfuls.

Of course this reminded me of the parable of the sower. We enjoyed discussing it in one of our agricultural Bible Studies.

I think sowing seeds in this way is called broadcasting.

The gospel continues to be spread by broadcasting on the radio, tv and other media.

Let us give thanks for those who are sharing the Gospel in this way.

Bryan was a great supporter of Christian broadcasters.

Thank you too to the gentleman who gave us such a vivid reminder of the words of Jesus.

BIBLE PASSAGE:

The Parable of the Sower

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake. 2 Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore. 3 Then he told them many things in parables, saying: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. 4 As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. 5 Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. 6 But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. 8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown. 9 Whoever has ears, let them hear."

18 "Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: 19 When anyone hears the message about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart. This is the seed sown along the path. 20 The seed falling on rocky ground refers to someone who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. 21 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away. 22 The seed falling among the thorns refers to someone who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, making it unfruitful. 23 But the seed falling on good soil refers to someone who hears the word and understands it. This is the one who produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.”
